AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures. A musical comedy act with ten peo-ple is the big number of the bill of-fered during the first half of the week at the Auditorium. There were good sized audiences at Monday's shows and the numbers made a good impression. The White Squaw, a 101-Bison film, is the headliner of the motion picture programme. Al Harrington and nis two small dogs has a novel act which displays the athletic ability of the man and the intelligence and training of the animals. He has a special gymnasium scene and his number is filled with entertaining stunts. Fun on the Briny is the title stunts. Fun on the Briny is the title of the musical comedy number and good dancing, lively songs and entergramme. The scene is on board ship.

It carried the honor this year of giving the largest contribution, $7, to the Willard fund in the state. It contributed $10 to flood sufferers and $3 to the county work. It was one of the few unions that paid into the state treasurer 30 cents per member, instead of the required 25 cents. There were several other encouraging items which made the report of unusual interest.

The secretary gave a very interesting report also. There were ten regular and six parlor meetings held during the The Sheltering Arms committee of and six parlor meetings held during the L. ### NEW PUPILS ENTERED The Norwich Business College LAST WEEK

Our teachers are far above the average in ability. They are specialists of the most practical type. They always produce first-class bookkeepers, superior shorthand writers, and successful typewriter operators.

They encourage young people who need encouragement and give the best personal help. For that reason our graduates are best prepared and always reliable and are preferred by business men.

At this school the individual student is never lost sight of. New pupils enter this school every week.
